Hello everyone.

First of all I must apologise for a short newsletter this month. I have had little chance to talk to the boys this month for they have been appearing at places, which have been to far away for me to travel to. I also wished you all to receive this newsletter a little earlier than usual, because of an important Wurzel date, which I will tell you about a little later on.

Here are a list of the boys August appearances and a few additions to the July list.

17th July Defford Aerodrome, Pershore, Worcs.

24th July Cirencester

25th July Cleeve Rugby Club, Downend, Bristol.

28th July - 8th August Whitebuck, Burley, Hants.

2nd August Winterbourne Abbas, Dorchester.

9th August Winter Gardens, Bournemouth.

10th - 15th August Cleopatra's, Pilning, Bristol.

18th August Old Granary, Bristol.

21st August Wotton Bassett.

22nd August Blaby, Leicester.

23rd - 29th August Webbington Country Club, Loxton, Somerset.

31st August Madresfield Agricultural Show, Glos.

As many of you have probably noticed my address has changed, to the one at the top of this letter. I have not moved house, but have been forced to change the number of the house by the local council, who decided that the houses on the Bath Rd., out of Stroud, of which ours is one, were badly numbered and difficult to find.

The important Wurzel date which I mentioned at the beginning of the letter, is on 25th July. Adge and the boys are travelling straight to London from their show at Cirencester to do a B.B.C. recording the following day. The show is "Country Meets Folk", and is featured twice a week on Radio 2. The Sunday show on 26th July, at 4-0pm is repeated the following Saturday at 7-30pm, so you all have two chances to listen to the show. I understand that tickets are available for the show from the Playhouse Theatre B.B.C. London, but as to whether there are any spare seats left I don't know. The show starts at 1-0pm, and Tony told me that the audience has to be in their seats by 12-30pm. I hope to be able to tell you all that happens next month.

Since my last newsletter Tony has since put many of his musical instruments up for sale and successfully sold a bass, bass guitar, two violins, and a banjo. He has also aquired two very large speakers for his stereo equipment, each weighing one cwt each.

On the evening of the 27th June, the peace and quiet of the village fo Nailsea in Somerset, was interrupted by the music of Adge and the Wurzels as they performed at the Annual Nailsea Fete. A trailer which was used by Adge and the boys, and the other accompying groups, as a changing room, was placed at the far end of the local playing field. A small but ample stage was connected to the front of it. For once the weather was favourable and although the sky looked very cloudy for the boys first appearance around 9-0pm it soon cleared, and their second show was presented before a large and enthusiastic audience, under a cloudless sky.

After a very quick change, when the show had finished, Tommy collected his instruments and was soon on the road, on his way home to Penicuik, nr. Edinburgh. He stayed there, taking a well earned rest, until Friday afternoon.

That is all the news I have for you this month,

My best wishes to you all,

Pat
